Disclaimers

The down payment only confirms your booking and is not refundable. Full payment is due on the night of the event. Checks can be made payable to "Up All Night Entertainment". Mail this completed contract along with your payment to the address shown at the top of the contract.
Up All Night Entertainment provides this service as entertainment only. We are not responsible for the conduct of any persons or group, with the exception of Up All Night Entertainment personnel who pledge professional attention and conduct at all times while at your event. We are not responsible for any injuries occurring at your event or the illegal use of any drugs or alcohol by persons attending your event. The contracting party assumes all liabilities due to accident, drug use, alcohol, or injury to anyone attending this event, including malicious damages or injury to Up All Night Entertainment personnel or equipment.
Up All Night Entertainment retains the right to cancel any appearance in the event of storm bad weather, or impassable roads. If conditions on the day of your event make it impossible for us to travel, or if you have to cancel the show due to weather or emergency situation, we will work with you to reschedule your show at a time suitable to both you and us. If a rescheduled date is not possible, Up All Night Entertainment will refund the total fee excepting the down payment. We will also attempt to notify you or a person in charge at least 2 hours before your event.
Up All Night Entertainment will bring a wide variety of music. We will attempt to consult with you before your event on music, although we cannot be held responsible for not playing specific requests. We carry a wide assortment of music from oldies to current music, as well as specialty songs.
Other music is available by request.
